Remedy Ranch is a faith based Christian organization. What are your thoughts on volunteering in a Christian Ministry?

SPECIAL NOTE: Remedy Ranch has liability insurance that covers the children that are attending as participants in case they get hurt. This insurance also covers you (as a volunteer) only in the event that you are the Session Leader with that child that gets injured. However, this insurance does not cover you if you were to be injured while on the ranch/premises and/or working as a volunteer in any other capacity. For this reason, it is necessary for all volunteers to have their own medical insurance. If you have read and understand this, please sign here, and provide your health insurance information. Thank You!
